On Avalon,
everyone gets treated like a celebrity

"In my experience, there's no better way to see Europe than onboard an Avalon Waterways cruise." Steve Liebmann

A floating room with a view

Avalon offers the largest staterooms on the European waterways with everything you would expect of a five star hotel including private bathrooms and luxurious high-end details.

Service that raises the bar

As part of the Globus Family of Brands, Avalon is backed by over 80 years of travel expertise. Your professional Cruise Director and crew are available around the clock to help you. Knowledgeable local guides will show you all the must-see sights along with the hidden gems.

A culinary affair

Avalon's superb cuisine is an integral part of your travel experience. Sample the flavours of the regions you are travelling through. Enjoy bountiful breakfasts, lunch buffets and multi-course dinners paired with complimentary wines, beer and soft drinks.
